Senate committee to hear presentation from Michigan Catastrophic Claims Association

Who: Senate Banking and Financial Institutions Committee, chaired by Sen.
Mike Bishop, R-Rochester

What: Presentation from the Michigan Catastrophic Claims Association about the group and its recent fee increase for drivers.

When: Thursday, April 22
Noon

Where: Farnum Building, Room 100
125 W. Allegan St.
Lansing

Briefing: Michigan, through the Catastrophic Claims Association, is the only state to provide auto insurance with unlimited personal-injury protection benefits. An assessment set by the association pays no-fault automobile insurers when an accident victim's benefits exceed $325,000.
